

Behavioral Support Rule – Implementation Plan for 5123-2-06 (effective 10/1/2022)

	June 1, 2022 – September 30, 2022	October 1, 2022 – ongoing
Training	DODD training - virtual, online, or in-person Other resources as shared by DODD	DODD training - virtual, online, or in-person Other resources as shared by DODD
Citations	No citations unless action/activity is a violation of 5123-2-06 as it exists	Citations when there is substantial non-compliance with updated 5123-2-06
Human Rights Committees	Examine practices to determine if changes to process are necessary Note changes to individual/guardian HRC notification and potential participation	Requirements of 5123-2-06 must be met
Policies and procedures	Examine and update policies and procedures	Policies and procedures should align with 5123-2-06
Existing individual support plans that include restrictive measures	Boards/ICFs should develop a plan to identify and revise existing plans that are not in compliance with rule. All revisions and annual plans should be completed by June 30, 2023.	All new initial and emergency plans as of October 1, 2022 or after must be in compliance When plans previously containing restrictive measures come up for annual review, plans must be in compliance with 5123-2-06 after that review

	June 1, 2022 – September 30, 2022	October 1, 2022 – ongoing
Medications that chemically restrain a person	Encouraged to evaluate existing plans with chemical restraints to determine if any changes will need to be made. All changes should be completed by June 30, 2023. Identify those individuals without a chemical restraint in their plan who are experiencing a blunt suppression of behavior as a result of receiving medication intended for a physical or psychiatric condition. If any individuals are identified, initiate the process of seeking further consultation with the prescriber as well as team review.	All new initial and emergency plans as of October 1, 2022 or after must be in compliance When plans previously containing restrictive measures come up for annual review, plans must be in compliance with 5123-2-06 after that review
Restrictive Measure Notifications	Encouraged to begin submitting entries for discontinuations along with implementation start entries	All plans must be in compliance with 5123-2-06
Annual analysis of data	Encouraged to examine annual analysis practices and update as necessary	Annual analysis practices should be updated and finalized in preparation for end-of-year submission to HRC by March 15 th of the upcoming year for the current year